TERMS & CONDITIONS

1. Pick up- Pilgrims are picked up from Haridwar Railway Station at 08:00 AM. Usually, pilgrims are clubbed together with other participants to make a group. The group travels together in shared cab/bus/tempo trevaller from Haridwar to Haridwar which is included in package.

2. Emergency during the pilgrimage- In CharDham Yatra, a medical emergency or any other emergency may arise. If for any reason you are sent down from the pilgrimage then BhaktiKaro will make arrangements for your return to the base camp or nearest road head. A staff will accompany you. She/he may not be trained personnel.

Evacuation or dealing with emergencies is extremely difficult in the mountains. It is time-consuming as well. A normal walk of 10 minutes may take 30 minutes in an emergency (a sick person is not easy to evacuate). Doctors are available at the all the pilgrimages but it take 20-30 minutes to reach at .government based medical facilities Camp. BhaktiKaro tour leaders are trained to administer first aid and know how to deal with issues related to the mountains. However, they are not doctors.

Registering for this tour is an understanding that you have read up on the difficulties of high-altitude and understand the risks. You have also understood what AMS, HAPE, and HACE are. You have taken efforts to educate yourself and you are in a position to manage your own altitude-related emergency.

3. Fitness- A high-altitude visit in the Himalayas requires considerable fitness. Your body needs to train itself to process more work with lower levels of oxygen.

Cardiovascular training before a trek is critically important. Training must include a strength and flexibility workout. We have laid out the eligibility criteria here. Registering for the pilgrimages is an understanding that you will undertake the mandated fitness training.

4. Non-liability- BhaktiKaro is not responsible for any loss/damage of your gear/equipment or other belongings on the pilgrimages.

5. Drinking and smoking are dangerous on a high-altitude mountains- It is strictly prohibited.

6. Payment- Payment for the pilgrimage tours can be done online through credit/debit card/UPI/Net banking or Cash.

7. Cancellation- Cancellation requests are not taken over the phone.

Should you wish to cancel your tour, this must be advised in writing by the 'lead name' on the booking and will be effective from the date of receipt by us. In case, if you wish to cancel your tour, please e-mail us at info@bhaktikaro.com. In the event of cancellation, you will have to pay the cancellation charges. No refund of Booking Amount INR 2,100/- per person.

8. Safety Protocol-

- a. While our itineraries are designed to allow for adequate acclimatization, most pilgrimages in Indian Himalayas climb quickly, this is called forced accents. There are chances that you will feel the effects of altitude sickness and oxygen deprivation while on this pilgrimage tours. Please be aware that your tour leader may deem it unsafe for you to continue pilgrimage at any time, and arrange for you to descend to a lower altitude.
- b. Our tour leaders will conduct routine health checks at all stays to measure oxygen saturation, pulse, and blood pressure. BhaktiKaro reserves the right to exclude any pilgrim from higher altitude on the pilgrimage without a refund if the pilgrim's vital readings are below accepted norms for that altitude. These norms are available to BhaktiKaro tour leaders.
- c. This is a high-altitude pilgrimages tour. It is important that you are a fit and confident walker in mountain terrain, able to manage ascents and descents by yourself within a reasonable time. BhaktiKaro reserves the right to turn around a pilgrim if in the opinion of our tour leader they are unable to complete the itinerary without requiring exclusive assistance. Please realistically self-assess your fitness and suitability for this tour before registering.
